Ask Trustees To Set Aside City Ground

Krebs Shows Expert Opinion Shows Feasibility of Project
Former Resident Sends Check to Aid In Building Arboretum

In order to start proper action, the Executive Committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society filed the following letter with the city council:

"Organization Committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society, Sierra Madre, Cal., June 3, '27. To the Honorable City Council of the City of Sierra Madre, California.

"Gentlemen: The undersigned are a committee appointed at a mass meeting of Sierra Madre residents and taxpayers at the Woman's Club on Tuesday evening, May 17th, 1927, for the purpose of devising ways and means to install an Arboretum at Bailey Canyon.

"The committee has made an investigation with expert help which it believes justifies the assumption that the plan is feasible. With due regard to the conservation of water resources in Bailey Canyon and fire protection in the Canyon it is believed the property owned by the city may be used to the advantage of the community in part and possibly eventually in whole as an arboretum.

"In order that this property may be made available for such a purpose the committee respectfully petitions your honorable body to initiate the necessary proceedings to dedicate Bailey Canyon for park purposes.

"Very truly,
 L. L. Krebs, Chairman,
 W. R. Humphries,
 Secretary-Treasurer,
 Oscar Seiling,
 Walter C. Poehler,
 Mrs. John H. Osgood,
 Fred Griebenow."

The communication came before the city council last night. A substantial group of taxpayers were present and manifested keen interest in the proceedings. Practically every important element in the community was represented.

In our general survey," says Krebs, the chairman, "we have received sufficient assurance from authoritative experts like Superintendent Frank D. Shearer of the Los Angeles Park system and Mr. Robertson, superintendent of Exposition Park, and Dr. George P. Clements, and from William Mulholland and J. B. Lippincott and other engineers, as well as from county authorities and financiers that our plans are feasible topographically, botanically, from an engineering and financial standpoint.

"Of course we are not able to present a complete detailed budgeted plan at this time. To get this we are working through the Arboretum committee, the engineering committee, the water committee and all the committees functioning to make an exact plan. We do know that the arboretum can be installed and operating complete with roads, housing, restaurant, some living quarters, artistic embellishments and a full administrative and operating staff for a sum well within $100,000. We know that this sum will pay for maintenance for at least five or six years; we know moreover, that the maintenance will not be over $5000 per year with every charge included; and we know this maintenance charge can be defrayed from county funds, state funds and from the funds of the Botanical Society, placing an insignificant demand upon Sierra Madre. As a matter of fact we know that less than one-fourth of the initial cost and the same pro rata of the maintenance will fall upon Sierra Madre. This is assuredly a good investment for Sierra Madre. We want a quarter and receive a dollar.

"To do this we need a Botanical Society. The government and other similar bodies require a botanical society. The stronger this society the better its effect upon the supporting bodies.

"We need a large membership, thoroughly representative, as an earnest of the sincerity of the people.

"The donations and fees paid to the Society are used to defray preliminary expenses. These consist of the expenses in incorporating the society, the unavoidable professional expense, the expenses for engineering, water, and the expenses of the landscape friends.

LINDBERGH TO BE HEARD ON AIR SATURDAY

The national reception to Capt. Charles Lindbergh at Washington will be broadcast Saturday morning, some time between 9 and 11:30 a. m., Pacific time, according to announcement received by the radio department of the Sierra Madre Electric Company. Observers will report the progress of the triumphal procession by means of a series of microphones. The trans-Atlantic flier will be officially received by President Coolidge and his cabinet, and speeches by the President, Captain Lindbergh and cabinet members will be broadcast.

There will also be an evening reception at about 8:30, eastern time, at which Secretary Work will be the principal speaker. Arrangements have been made for covering the entire country with the radio reports, the Pacific Coast being served by the National Broadcast Company.

Orchestra In Need of Help From Parents

Twenty-five Boys and Girls Indicate Desire to Join In Organization

Scoutmaster Ishoy reports twenty-five boys and girls and seven parents came to the Park House Wednesday night to meet Prof. Peterson and discuss the formation of a band or orchestra here. On account of the absence of so many parents it was impossible to take definite action, but it was decided Prof. Peterson would visit the parents of the children who were present and see to what extent cooperation could be secured. He was emphatic in his statement that the success of any child, either in individual musical work or in orchestra or band work, depends almost entirely on the amount of encouragement and assistance given by parents. There appears to be no other way to make sure of the necessary hour-a-day of practice.

Prof. Peterson says he is perfectly willing to begin the building of an orchestra the first of next week if he has one student to begin with who is really in earnest. Mr. Ishoy says he will make further announcement as soon as possible and will send notices home by the Boy Scouts, hoping to have more evidence of parental assistance.

Mrs. Olsen Passes Away at Home Here

Mrs. Oline Olsen, wife of Martin Olsen and a Sierra Madre pioneer, passed away on Monday at the family home, 30 South Baldwin. She had been ill for a long time, having been brought home only a short time ago from the Pasadena hospital where she spent several months.

Mrs. Olsen was a native of Christiania, Norway, and resided for a time in Concord, Mass., before coming to Sierra Madre thirty-nine years ago. Here she lived quietly as a real home-maker and raised her family of six children who survive with their father. They are Andrew Olsen of Fresno, Mrs. Elida Goodwin of Chicago, Henry Olsen of Sierra Madre, Mrs. Olga Borgford of Seattle, Mrs. Mabel Medley of Sierra Madre and Norman Olsen of San Francisco.

Funeral services were conducted at the Ray A. Grant funeral parlors Wednesday afternoon by Mr. R. B. Wallace of the Brethren with whom Mrs. Olsen worshiped devoutly. Interment took place at the Sierra Madre cemetery.

Denni Builds Fine Road to Top of Hill

Louis Denni, who is courageously building a hill estate to suit exactly his own taste, has put a fine road to the topmost knoll of his grounds which affords an extraordinary view of the San Gabriel Valley. The road is private but is open to the public and should be visited by every Sierra Madre Madman who loves these surroundings. Mr. Denni generously shares his view as well as his time with anyone who wishes to make the trip to his hill.

Lots of people make a specialty of pouring ice water on other people's enthusiasm.

Exhibit at Club House

Last night the annual exhibit of the work of the school pupils was opened to the public in the woman's club house. Although greatly handicapped for space, the showing was highly creditable to the pupils and teachers alike. In addition to examples of written work from classes, there was a large showing of various types of handicraft work. Individual and class projects were shown in great number, particular attention being paid to model homes and gardens in miniature, relief maps and models of missions.

During the evening a musical program was rendered by the school orchestra, with old Spanish songs sung by seventh and eighth grade pupils in costume.

The exhibit will be open to the public until 5:30 tonight and after 7 o'clock. This afternoon the orchestra will play again, the 4th grade pupils will sing and the 3rd grade pupils will give a little play.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the pupils of the 6th grade will give the operetta, "Snow White," with the following cast:

Stars Initiate Class of Four Candidates

Four candidates were received into the Order of the Eastern Star at the regular meeting of Sierra Madre chapter Monday night. The new members are Mrs. William Kirschner, Mrs. J. Tyrrell Rallsbach, Jr., Misses Sarah Schwartz and Nancy Davis. Following the chapter session Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, matron, invited the company to the banquet hall where dainty refreshments were served.

Hammond Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Green of 169 North Baldwin Avenue left Tuesday for a trip east. He will visit relatives in Chicago, Boston and Washington, D. C., and is registered for a summer course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. For the past year he has been attending Cal Tech at Pasadena. He will return in September by way of the north.

Some men give their friends sure-thing tips on the principle that misery always loves a lot of company.

DOCTOR PLANS TO OPEN OFFICE IN THIS CITY

Dr. C. L. T. Herbert who, with Mrs. Herbert, has been spending several months in Sierra Madre, left Tuesday for his old home in Dickinson, North Dakota, for a stay of about three weeks. He will attend to various business matters with a view to returning to Sierra Madre to make his home. He says he has fought the elements through enough North Dakota winters to be perfectly satisfied with whatever the weather man sends him here.

Dr. Herbert will attend a meeting of the state board of osteopathic examiners of which he has been president for six years, and will present his resignation as president and member. Upon his return to Sierra Madre he plans to resume the practice of his profession with office quarters in the business district.

Linoleum Is New Library Improvement

Library Shows Usual Steady Increase in Number of Patrons

Miss Lulu Moore, city librarian, reports the following circulation figures for the month of May, showing the usual steady gain:

Circulation: Adult, 2552; Juvenile, 966; total, 3518. Percent of adult fiction, 49; percent of adult non-fiction, 23; percent of juvenile 27. Total circulation of same month last year, 3175. Gain of 344 or 11 per cent. Eighteen new borrowers registered during the month.

The library is made vastly more attractive by the new floor covering of inlaid linoleum. It was laid by the Sierra Madre Furniture Company and is a great improvement over the old oil-saturated wood floor.

George H. Clarke came down from Santa Paula for a week end trip to Imperial Valley, stopping in Sierra Madre while going each way. He reported a capacity crowd at Santa Paula Mineral Springs resort over the week end. The camp was formerly a very popular place but has lain idle for several years while the property was tied up in litigation. In company with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ritchey Mr. Clarke is putting the place in shape for the summer's business and says that all indications point to a big rush as soon as school closes and the vacation season begins in earnest.

Pupils of the primary department and members of the cradle roll of the Congregational Sunday school were entertained at a picnic Wednesday afternoon in the city park. The teachers in charge were Mrs. R. R. Hartman, Mrs. C. Twycross, Misses Ruth Staff and Marjorie Staples.

Local Artists Make Hit At San Gabriel

"The Mayor and the Manicure" Proves Captivating Vehicle

Dinner Served Under the Old Grape Vine Near San Gabriel Mission

Sierra Madre performers fairly ran away with the show at the annual high jinks of the Associated Chambers of Commerce held in San Gabriel Tuesday night. The large delegation which attended the dinner and entertainment had every reason to be proud of the local entry on the program which was furnished jointly by the various cities.

The Sierra Madre number was the one-act comedy, "The Mayor and the Manicure," which was given some time ago at the Masonic Temple. The cast included Mrs. Cecily Allen, Mrs. May Arnold, Dave Buchan and Wilfred Gruit.

The dinner was served under the old grape vine near the Mission, and the program was staged in the magnificent new Mission Playhouse. As there were no stage settings available for the play, the imagination of the audience was assisted by President W. R. Humphries who described the scene in advance.

The Sierra Madre delegation included Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Humphries, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Estelle Fennel, Mr. and Mrs. Woodson F. Jones, J. M. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McDonough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins, Mr. and Mrs. George Babbitt, Sr. and Mrs. George Babbitt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Grant.

GIRL RESERVES HOLD BENEFIT AT WISTARIA

The Girl Reserves of Sierra Madre have taken over the ticket selling for the Wistaria Theatre for next Thursday night, when the feature film will be "Senorita" with Bebe Daniels as the star. By special arrangement with Manager Myers the organization will share in the proceeds. In addition to the usual film program it is expected a number of juvenile screen stars will be present, and a sketch will be presented by the girls. Two shows will be given as usual.

Dudley Shaw Santa Ana Quarterback

The Santa Ana Register in a recent issue has this to say about Dudley Shaw: "Coach Oliver believes he has found a quarterback for next year's team in the person of one Dudley Shaw of triple-threat ability. Shaw weighs about 150 pounds, he is fast and hits hard. He can pass, punt better than any other backfield candidate and is a deadly tackler, besides apparently having the requisites of a good field general." Dudley is attending the high school at Santa Ana.

Mrs. Brunson Dies In Los Angeles

Word was received here yesterday of the passing of Mrs. Nettie Brunson of Los Angeles, a former resident of Sierra Madre. She was the wife of the late C. W. Brunson and at one time operated the Shirley Hotel, now called the Rainier. She is survived by one son, J. Wade Brunson. The body was brought to the Ray A. Grant funeral parlors at 2 o'clock today (Friday) and interment will take place at the Sierra Madre cemetery.

Never judge a man's greatness by the opinion his neighbor has of him.

LEGION OFF ON ANNUAL TRIP TO CATALINA

The annual pilgrimage to Catalina of members of the American Legion and their friends and families will be an event of the week-end. This will be their sixth annual pilgrimage and the affair is always keenly anticipated as it is an occasion for much merriment. There have been 1000 reservations made and the group is planning a costume and mardi gras parade. On Saturday evening there will be drum and bugle contests, which will be broadcast over KFWO.

Sierra Madre people expecting to go are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Haggood, Harvey Steinberger, George Scott, L. E. Steinberger, George Steinberger and Lawrence Brain.

Plays To Be Given Week of June 18th

Splendid Staff of Technicians Aids in Preparation of Offerings

The Temple Players, under the direction of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, will give three one-act plays which they are now preparing early in the week of June 18. An evening of much merriment is promised by Mrs. Steinberger, who has a cast that can't be equalled in this vicinity.

Mrs. Finlayson, who is assisting Mrs. Steinberger, has charge of the music, which is all the recommendation necessary, for her ability as a musician is well known. Mrs. Wm. Lees will take care of properties and stage furnishings. As everyone knows, this demands a great deal of detail work and Mrs. Lees has a splendid faculty for thoroughness in this regard. Rudolph Hartman will have complete charge of the lighting.

The plays will be given for the Woman's Club at the club house, and everyone interested in a genuinely good time is urged to be present. Tickets will be sold in advance for both general admission and reserved seats.

Alarm Over Poisoning Is Groundless

Alarming but unfounded reports of wholesale poisonings in Sierra Madre appeared in various daily papers Wednesday and Thursday, causing needless concern to a great number of people.

Local people were frightened by the report that the resulting sickness had been traced to arsenic spray used on fresh vegetables and that one or more valley gardeners had been placed under arrest.

Distant friends of Sierra Madre were alarmed by the newspaper reports and telephoned from as far away as San Diego to ascertain if their people here were safe.

Statements purporting to emanate from Dr. J. M. Furstman, district health officer, to the effect that poisonings had resulted from the use of fresh vegetables and that vegetable men were to be prosecuted are positively denied by him.

Mrs. Ellen C. Barker, municipal nurse, says the only basis for such reports as have been put into circulation is the fact that within a few weeks there have been a number of cases, mostly very mild, where nausea was one of the symptoms. Other symptoms differed so widely in the various cases that no common cause such as poisoning by an arsenic vegetable spray could be assigned to them. Several cases have been diagnosed as a mild form of intestinal flu.

Apparently there is no particular reason to fear the use of fresh vegetables and fruits which are now abundant and delicious.

Miss Blumer Plans Visit to Switzerland

Mrs. Lottie Humphries Ellwood who has been in Europe for several months, writes to her brother, W. R. Humphries, of meeting Miss Edith Blumer of Sierra Madre upon the arrival of Miss Blumer in London early in May. Together they have been "doing" London and enjoying their visit very much. Miss Blumer was planning to visit Switzerland soon.

Throngs come each year from all parts of Southern California to tax the capacity of the Rose Bowl on the occasion of the annual event.
- Music for the 1927 pageant will be supplied by the Los Angeles Woman's Symphony orchestra, an ensemble of eighty pieces, conducted by Henry Schoenfeldt. The 575 members of the 1927 graduating class will witness the program from beneath flower-decked canopies in reserved sections of the bowl. For the occasion, the floor of the stadium will be converted into an enormous garden, filled with growing trees, blossoming flowers, tinkling fountains, rustic seats, flower-laden pergolas and running streams spanned by bridges.
- The pageant will be in three episodes. In the first, the cherry blossom trees will be awakened by the Goddess of Spring and her attendants, the fairies, elves, sunbeams, brownies, rain drops and spring zephyrs, while Japanese musicians plan an accompaniment on Japanese instruments. The second episode will depict the awakening of the roses, with vocal groups singing rose songs, including "Roses Are In Bloom," official song of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. In the third episode, the messengers of spring call on Master Cupid to aid them in awakening the Spirit of Youth, hidden in the heart of a (Continued on Page Eight)

Work! Work! Work!

There's no better medicine than work and the secret of success is built around this little four-letter word.

There are people in Sierra Madre who want work and the little real estate office is a clearing house for those that desire work. Phone me your wants—I'll try and fill 'em.

I've been writing letters to out-of-town owners offering to see that their places are kept in good condition. I felt that I could invest a few stamps and a little time in offering my service, which I feel should be free, the reimbursement being felt more in the improved condition of property for sale and the looks of the town.

This week I've put $50 of eastern money into circulation in Sierra Madre—that means a hundred hours of employment for men in Sierra Madre—it means better prices for the property, a better looking city and an example to some of the folks at home to go thou and do likewise.

I would like to let you into a big secret—but this week the still small voice says no.

Supper or Dinner?

I don't care what you call this last meal of the day—just after enjoying your evening repast, drive around this foothill city—come up-stairs, as it were, to Alta Sierra Madre and look over the world's prettiest garden—the San Gabriel Valley. Take a deep breath; take another—then go home and write to the folks east that should live here and invite them.

Trees! Trees! Trees!

Trees mean more to us here than anything else. Plant with thought, putting the right tree in the right place; watch them, care for them and in your old age you will have loving friends around you—friends of nature that will protect you from the winds and the sun.

Gallant Gentleman

"You seem to have been in a serious accident."

"Yes," said the bandaged person, "I tried to climb a tree in my motor car."

"What did you do that for?"

"Just to oblige a lady who was driving another car. She wanted to use the road."

A Bit of Nonsense

A Busy Day for Si

Si Brown stood on the corner of the main street in the busy city and gazed with open-mouthed astonishment at the stream of vehicles moving past. Finally he turned to his companion and said in an awed voice:

"Jee-rusalem, Hiram, they shore are behind with their haulin,' ain't they?"

No Time to Delay

Guide (in Yellowstone): "Now, ladies, this phenomenon occurs every three minutes. Maybe you would like to look down into the geyser before the next eruption."

Mr. Smithers (to his wife): "You may look, dearie; but remember the geyser won't wait for you to get ready to move out of the way."

Knew What to Expect

Two small girls were playing together one afternoon in the park. "I wonder what time it is," said one of them at last.

"Well, it can't be 4 o'clock yet," replied the other with magnificent logic, "because my mother said I was to be home at 4—and I'm not."

Couldn't Fool the Cow

The city girl boarding in the country spoke to the farmer about the savage way in which the cow regarded her.

"Well," said the farmer, "it must be on account of that red waist you're wearing."

"Dear me!" cried the girl. "Of course I know it's terribly out of style, but I had no idea a country cow would notice it."

The Important Thing

"Do you say that your hens 'sit' or 'set'?" asked the precise pedagogue of the busy housewife. "It never matters to me what I say," was the quick reply. "What concerns me is to learn, when I hear the hen cackling, whether she is laying or lying."

Terrible Catastrophe

"What was the excitement down the street?"

"Oh the man in a reverie ran into a woman in a tantrum."

"Were the machines badly damaged?"

Spoke Out of Her Turn

It was a wet day, and as the pretty girl entered the crowded car a man rose.

"No, you must not give up your seat," I insist," said the young woman.

"You may insist as much as you like, miss," was the reply. "I'm getting out here!"

Fully Prepared

Mother: "If you fell in the water, why are your clothes dry?" Tommy: "I took 'em off in case of accident."

Keeping Her Supplied

The husband was seeing his beloved wife off for a holiday.

"Maggie, dear," he said, "hadn't you better take some fiction with you to while away the time?"

"Oh, no, George," she said, "you will be sending me some letters."

Of Course Not

"Here, boy," said an irate passer-by, "your dog has bitten me in the ankle."

"Well," reported the boy who owned the dog, "you wouldn't expect a little dog like him to bite you on the neck, would you?"

Then He Got the Air

Doris: "Oh, Charles, it is so cold! I would like to have something around me."

Charles: "What would you care to have?"

Doris: "Oh, anything!"

And he brought her a shawl!

To Safeguard Fruits, Nuts Vegetables

Sacramento, June 10.—A new general law, designed to standardize and safeguard the handling of California fruits, nuts and vegetables was signed by Governor Young as one of his last acts of the bill signing period allotted him by law. The bill, introduced by Senator Jones of Santa Clara county, brings the control of fruits, nuts and vegetables from the garden or the orchard clear through to the hands of the consumer under the direction of the director of agriculture working through his own deputies and county officials.

The act provides that the director shall establish grades, after meetings with the boards, and shall publish his decisions, and that such grades shall thereafter control.

The act also defines and standardizes all boxes and other containers and puts a stop to the Yankee practice of putting the little apples in the bottom of the barrel. The act will not apply to a grower who delivers in bulk to a packer or to a by-products factory, but it covers all other sales or transfers.

Transportation companies are bound to assist in the carrying out of the provisions of the act.

Standards of packing for every important product of California farms and orchards are set out in detail in the bill and a series of definitions is provided to control the regulations which may be adopted by the Director of Agriculture.

Violations of the provisions of the act by farmers, dealers or others will be misdemeanors and punishable by fine and imprisonment or either.

The act does not carry any license or other fees or charges and the expense of enforcement will be borne by the state except as horticultural inspectors and others, paid by counties, are called upon by the director to assist in enforcement.

Strange Disappearance

"Where is the car?" demanded Mrs. Diggs.

"Dear me!" ejaculated Professor Diggs. "Did I take the car out?"

"You certainly did. You drove it to town."

"How odd! I remember now that after I got out I turned around to thank the gentleman who gave me the lift and wondered where he had gone."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

W. S. Sturtevant, builder of the trail bearing his name, and founder of Sturtevant Camp, was stricken with paralysis while alone at Chilao where he had stopped while on his way to Buckhorn and Twin Peaks. After being helpless for three days, he was found by two hikers who brought him to Sierra Madre under great difficulties. He was taken to the Soldier's Home at Sawtelle.

F. E. Hathaway opened a furniture store in a frame building on North Baldwin Avenue.

The Somerville home on Carter Avenue was sold to C. Ross Clark for $3700, S. R. G. Twycross agent.

TEN YEARS AGO

Tuesday, June 5, was set apart throughout the nation for army service registration. All males between 21 and 30 were required to enroll.

The city trustees let the contract for the improvement of Alegria Street between Sunnyside and Sierra Madre Avenue.

Mrs. W. E. Walker was elected president of the Woman's Club, with Mrs. Frank J. Hart as vice-president.

Thirty-five members of the Japanese Association, headed by President J. Kashitani, enrolled as members of the Red Cross Chapter.

"The Mikado" was given by home talent under the auspices of the Girls' Friendly Society for the benefit of the Red Cross. The cast included Argyle Tully as the Mikado, Charles Hall Perry as Nanki Poo, J. N. Hawks as Koko and Mrs. Donald Ashmore as Pitti Sing. Others in the cast were Edward Ganster, F. P. Sperry, Miss Elsa Kraft, Miss Yerdia Appleby, Mrs. J. N. Hawks, and a large chorus.

Sergeant: "When you pulled the attempted suicide out of the water, what happened?"

Cop: "The minute I turned my back, he hung himself on a tree."

Sergeant: "Why didn't you cut him down?"

Cop: "I thought he had hung himself up to dry."

Fourth of a series of Health Prescriptions

Have Yourself Examined

LIVE a longer life, and a healthier one. Everyone should have a periodic health examination, preferably on one's birthday, or any other day, for that matter, so long as it is done periodically.

Never before has the gospel of good health been so accessible to the community or the individual and never before have they been so willing to accept and apply the great benefits offered by it and its exponents.

However, we still have far to travel. We still need better informed communities.

The so-called non-infectious diseases—cancer, apoplexy, Bright's disease, heart disease—account for the greater part of our deaths. These are in part preventable diseases for which scientific medicine has much to offer.

Here is where the periodic health examination may be of the greatest benefit. Have one every birthday.

The Motor Car

THE motor car is a great invention. It has wiped out distances; it has annexed the most remote rural fastnesses to urban life, and has added a great impetus to business. It has cost a good deal, it is true, and there are those who wonder if the cost has not exceeded the value returned, but I leave that question to the economists to determine.

The automobile has helped to settle a good many difficult social questions, and not the least of these, I think, is the question of what the young fellow with no particularly definite religious convictions shall do on Sunday. What to do with leisure has been a more and more pertinent question as the hours of labor have been gradually cut down.

When I was a boy we went to work at five in the morning, or earlier when occasion demanded, and ceased our activities when darkness drove us into the house. Even on rainy days there was work which could be performed in the woodshed or in the barn, and on Sunday we found social, if not spiritual recreation in going to church. We had very little leisure hanging heavy on our hands as compared with the youth of today.

The motor car, however, relieves his mind of any strain as to what to do with his time. Any young fellow can manage with a little strategy and economy to come into personal possession of an invalid auto. If he does not have the money, he can go into partnership with some other acquaintance. Cars can always be bought on time, and paying for them occupies a part of one's leisure.

With a forty-dollar car one is as fully occupied as if he were in love. As I was going to church last Sunday I passed four centers of interest where groups of young fellows were performing certain surgical operations upon crippled machines, or giving them their weekly shampoo and bath.

It is Sunday morning only that the youthful car owner spends in getting his machine into condition. The afternoon is different. After dinner he loads up and is off for a spin. It is amazing how fast the old rattle-trap can travel; it is unbelievable how many can be crowded into even a one-seated coupe. There are accidents, of course, but there is the old saying about Providence looking after fools and children. They go somewhere, they get back sometime, and the old car has furnished employment for another Sunday. On the whole, there aren't so many injured or killed as one might expect.

Double Bill Features the Big Program

Ice skating, skiing and a boxer's training camp scenes for Richard Dix' newest Paramount starring vehicle "Knockout Reilly," coming tonight and Saturday to the Wistaria Theater, were "shot" at Lake Placid, N. Y., world famous winter sports resort in the Adirondacks.

"All Aboard," starring Johnny Hines, is coming Sunday and Monday. Edna Murphy is co-star and is said to score heavily in the new offering.

A big double bill is provided by Manager Myers for Tuesday and Wednesday. "The Valley of Hell" is a thrilling western story, filmed on the Big Horn Ranch of Nevada. Francis McDonald appears as a new and promising star. In "The Outlaw Dog," the canine star, Ranger, makes another hit. This wonderful police dog is given a splendid supporting caste for this F.B.O. feature.

Bebe Daniels is not the only exemplification of versatility in "Senorita," her latest Paramount comedy-drama which comes Thursday only, and in which the star first appears as a North American girl, next as a dashing caballero of the South American pampas and finally as a charming Spanish senorita.

THE BUSY LAZY GUY

(By Douglas Mallock, the Lumberjack Poet)

You can always tell a loafer, if there's loafin'
in the crew;
You can always tell a loafer, for he has so much to do;
When the men are in the maintop, he is fussin' with a jib—
On the drive he's always lookin' for a chance
away to snib—

In the woods, the smallest timber is the timber he will find—
In the yard the 12x12 is the kind he leaves behind.

He will fuss and he will fiddle, huntin' up
the softest snap.
Life is one eternal treadmill for the take-
it-easy chap.

Yes, it takes a lot of trouble, skippin' labor
day by day,
For a fellah has to figger how to dodge it
all the way;

On the drive or in the timber, in the mill
or in the yard,
You can always tell a loafer 'cause he works
so bloomin' hard.

CHEAPER ELECTRICITY

REDUCTION in the retail price of electricity is bound to have far-reaching effects. The rate at which the modern home is becoming electrically equipped will doubtless be greatly accelerated. Business in Southern California seldom considers any other kind of power, only studying new ways to employ this wonderful factory and office helper.

Everybody recognizes the desirability of electricity for home equipment, but most people hold back because they feel it is still a luxury which they cannot afford. The recently announced cut of 14 per cent in rates of the Southern California Edison Company will put many more electrical conveniences within the reach of a large number of people.

Like the several previous reductions in Edison rates, the present cut is voluntary on the part of the company. Constantly improving efficiency and economy in production and distribution of current have made possible the several reductions within the twenty years the News has been published. But the present cut is partly experimental, on the theory that further reductions will result in greatly increased consumption. Such a result seems inevitable.

This policy of voluntary rate reductions
on the part of the Edison Company is certainly unusual, if not unique. It has done much to cement the feeling of good will toward the company, in connection with the well defined policy of the company to cultivate good feeling in every other way possible.

The Electrical Age has been heralded for the last thirty years, and is still just beginning to get well under way. Widespread as is the use of electricity, its present applications will seem rather puny a quarter century hence.

A SIDELIGHT OF HISTORY

(Hemet News.)

LOCAL history is recounted in an article in the current Ladies' Home Journal.
It will not be remembered by the newer residents of the valley that the San Jacinto
forest reserve was set aside by President Grover Cleveland in the last days of his second term, late in February, 1897. And there are not many who recall that the name was changed to Cleveland National Forest by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1908, a few days after the death of Cleveland.

Notwithstanding differences of political belief, Cleveland and Roosevelt were close personal friends. When Cleveland was governor of New York, Roosevelt was beginning his career as a member of the New York legislature. With advent of the Cleveland administration in 1885, Roosevelt was retained as a member of the national civil service commission. The long personal friendship of Cleveland and Roosevelt is one of the beautiful incidents of political life.

Perhaps the women folks of the family had something to do with the friendship of their husbands. Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs.
Roosevelt are of the about the same age and they were both married in 1886. Of the six living mistresses of the White House only Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Roosevelt are close personal friends. With regard to all the others there have been jealousies that prevented close social contact. Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Roosevelt still maintain their life-long friendship and each is a frequent visitor to the home of the other. The lack of cordiality between Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Taft doubtless had much to do with the breaking of political and personal relationship between their distinguished husbands.

OF INTEREST TO THE TRADE

TO the printing-trade of Southern California there is considerable of interest in the removal of the Los Angeles branch of the American Type Founders Company to splendid new quarters on South Los Angeles Street. The old store on North Broadway has been a landmark and trade
headquarters for a quarter of a century.

In the new establishment Manager R. O.
Shadinger will realize an ambition of twenty years. He will have under one roof modern offices and store, with ample room for machinery display and machine shop, which have been scattered among several locations.
A railroad switch affords shipping facilities at the rear door. The great concern which he represents never had a more popular branch manager than Mr. Shadinger, and the members of the craft will unite in wishing him and his loyal staff many years of enjoyment in their new quarters.

FORGET IT

THE News has purposely refrained from mentioning talk of recall proceedings
rather than give impetus to the movement
by unnecessary publicity. When importuned to take part in such an action The News refused, although assured a considerable amount of business in the course of the proposed campaign. The baneful effects of the inevitable community squabble appeared to outweigh by far any possible resultant good. The agitation now appears to have subsided.

The principle of the recall law is right.
It is a useful weapon, but ought only to be used in an absolute extremity. To use it unnecessarily is to weaken its usefulness,
in times of real need.

ETIQUETTE FOR THE COUNTRY

(Christian Science Monitor)

It is none too early that a code of etiquette has been formulated for the mutual benefit of city and country folk, defining proper conduct in the great out-of-doors.
And it is a good foundation plank that has been laid for this code, which has been prepared by Seth E. Gordon, extension director of the Izaak Walton League at its national headquarters in Chicago, in the statement that the rst thing to remember is that everything belongs to somebody.

There are common-sense recommendations that are included in the code, but they are unfortunately only too often more honored in the breach than in the observance. Disfiguring natural resources, one is glad to see stated, is one thing that must be avoided. Those individuals who seem to think that they are entitled to tear up flowers by the roots or rend branches from trees, at the same time leaving their refuse to mar
the landscape, have much to learn concerning the necessity for practicing the Golden Rule.

An important phase of camp life, one reads, is the building of fires, but these should not be too large, nor should they be lighted without proper precautions, and when camp is broken all fires should be drowned with water.

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

NOTABLE BOOK

PRINTED RIGHT HERE—

Around the News office we are fairly bursting with pride over the compliments showered on one of the latest products of the shop.
It is a beautiful book of 232
pages containing the autobiography of Andrew James Copp, Los Angeles pioneer. A good many people who have inspected it declare they never saw a handsomer specimen of bookmaking.

The book was planned entirely and every bit of mechanical work was done right here in the News office. The folded sheets were delivered to the bookbinder who did the only part of the work done outside this shop. The book is printed on handsome deckleedged Strathmore paper, gilt top and gold tooled leather cover adding to the appearance of richness.
The pages are six by nine inches,
generous margins and clear, readable type presenting an inviting appearance to the booklover.
Through the book are inserted many half-tone illustrations. The excellence of the press work is the most frequent subject of comment by those who have examined
the book.

To be able to present such a book to children and grandchildren on one's 80th birthday is something which falls to the lot of few people. That was the purpose of the author, and only enough copies were printed for such distribution. This note of distinction is conveyed by the imprint on the back of the title
page: "The Sierra Madre Press, Sierra Madre, California, certifies that fifteen copies of this book
have been printed for the author,
this copy being presented by him
to—"

The book tells of an interesting career. Mr. Copp was born in Connecticut, worked his way thru Andover and Yale, practiced law,
and had varied business experiences in the east before coming to Los Angeles in 1884. From small beginnings he built up a fortune in Los Angeles real estate
and has raised an interesting family to carry on the name with credit.

SPEAKING OF BOTANICAL GARDENS—

Another interesting piece of work now going through the shop is an illustrated folder for the Coolidge Rare Plant Gardens over
on Foothill Boulevard in East Pasadena. It deals with a new rose—product of the genius of D. W. Coolidge which has made his gardens famous throughout the United States and even abroad.

One day I had to wait some time to show Mr. Coolidge a proof on a catalog. He explained his delay by saying the lady whom he had just been showing about the nursery was Mrs. Potter Palmer of Chicago who was making selections for a carload of plants which he was shipping to her Florida estate.

Mr. Coolidge is a pioneer in his business and has never been content to have "just another nursery." He has specialized in two things: Developing new and superior stock from familiar varieties, and importing unusual plants
from the far corners of the earth.
As a result he is said to have one of the greatest collections of rare
plants in the country.

LINDY'S DOUBLE—

If you want to know how Mill Steinberger would look in the movies, just see the news films
of Charlie Lindbergh. In movement, architecture and elevation
above the surrounding humans
there is a striking resemblance.
If the flier were only a little handsomer he might be able to use Milt as a double.

WORTH-WHILE ENDORSE- MENT—

Glad to see C. W. Jones circulating about town again. He is putting on weight under the milk
diet regime administered at home and is looking himself again. As I expected, he is thoroughly en-thusiased over the idea of the Botanical Society and Arboretum, and expressed a desire to help in any way possible.

FAMOUS ALREADY—

Walking up Baldwin Avenue
Sunday afternoon with Phil Carter's handsome and marvellously
located new house as an objective,
I saw an auto load of people pull up to the curb. The driver called out: "Where are these Sierra Madre Botanical Gardens I've been reading about?" He was informed the gardens have not yet arrived
but are on the way, and he could inspect the site in Bailey Canyon.

Dr. M. C. Laidlaw returned home Sunday from Lake Elsinore
where she has been spending two weeks with Mrs. H. C. Hall who is ill. Mrs. Hall was formerly of Sierra Madre and her friends here will be glad to know that her condition is improving.

from a two week's trip to Yo-semite, with relatives from Ontario.

LOCAL PEOPLE TO ASSIST AT CONFERENCE

Members of the Catholic Church of Sierra Madre are to have an active part in the forthcoming
national conference of Catholic Charities, to be held in Los Angeles September 4 to 8, it was announced today. To cooperate with the general executive committee appointed by the Right Reverend Bishop John J. Cantwell, D.D.,
the following committee of Sierra Madre laymen and women has been appointed. St. Rita's Church:
W. Schiltz, P. Ranahan, Louis
Bartel, Mrs. M. Ott and Robert Fitzwilliam.

The national conference will open with a great meeting in Hollywood Bowl Sunday evening, September 4, and its sessions will continue through September 8th,
in Philharmonic Hall, Knights of Columbus Hall and the Biltmore Hotel.

TELEPHONE USE VARIES DURING DAYLITE HOURS

The number of telephone conversations varies considerably from hour to hour throughout the day.
The greatest number occur in the mornings and afternoons, and they fall away to almost nothing during the small hours of the early morning. Yet if all the calls in the United States during 1926 had been evenly distributed throughout the day and night, there would have been more than 45-000 telephone conversations begun
every sixty seconds.

On the same basis an average of $1,400 would have been disbursed every minute for the operating expenses involved in caring for the 45,000 telephone calls, and of the above amount the telephone industry would have been busy paying $150 a minute into the public treasury in the form of taxes.

Unfortunately the business world does not carry on, smoothly and evenly, all day and night. The telephone industry must maintain a huge system to care for the peak loads that come in around ten in the morning and three in the afternoon, and also maintain this huge plant ready for instant service all through the night when it is little used.

GOODRICH PLANS BIG TIRE PLANT IN CALIFORNIA

B. G. Work, president of the B.
F. Goodrich Rubber Company,
Akron, Ohio, has just announced
the purchase of 45 acres of land outside of Los Angeles, for the erection of a Pacific Coast factory to be devoted to the manufacture of tires and tubes.

It is also reported that this new plant will have a production capacity of between 6,000 and 8,000 tires daily and will be in operation early in 1928. It will employ in the neighborhood of 5,000 men.

Goodrich decided upon a Pacific Coast plant, according to officials,
in order to be in a better position
to meet the rapidly growing demands of the coast trade. The Akron plant is already overcrowded.
Production has been steadily increased until it has become necessary to increase manufacturing facilities to relieve the situation.

Sales pressure from the Pacific coast was such that the Goodrich officials naturally turned their attention to the west coast when the decision was made to enlarge present production capacities.

No estimates of cost on the new project have been prepared.
The tract purchased is large enough to permit such expansion
as may be necessary from time to time.

Mrs. G. D. Elderson and two sons, Franklin Gray and Lee, have returned to their home in San Diego after spending three weeks
with Mrs. Elderson's parents, Mr.
and Mrs. E. B. Gray of the Little Gray Inn on the Sturtevant Trail.

Ford Owners

Do you know that your Ford is one of Ten Million now in use? It is the only car today that you can get real honest-to-goodness service on, and according to Henry Ford's latest announcement you will continue to receive this service.

The Ford Motor Company is going to produce a new car, but unlike the other manufacturers, they are not going to use methods which will cause the present Model T to become obsolete. It will be some time before the new car will be available, so in the meantime let us put your present car in the best condition.

DON'T WORRY—

Your Model T car is not going to become an Orphan. We are still selling them. New cars now in stock. Liberal trade-in allowance on your old car.

The quality of milk used in the household is as important as the quantity. The source of the milk supply, the official ratings and the sanitary care are matters of vital concern. Fortunately, the general standard of milk in Los Angeles county is unusually high. However every household should be familiar with the rating of the particular milk that comes into it. This can be secured from the local health officer who has the ratings on file for public information.

The various grades of milk should also be understood, as well as their best utilization. The grade of milk to buy depends upon who is to drink it, the personal taste, the ability to digest it and the price one can afford to pay.

The highest grade of milk procurable is the certified milk. This is produced under the most sanitary conditions and under contract with the American Medical Milk Commission. It is low in bacterial count (not more than 10,000 per cc) and high in fat content (not less than 4%). This grade is especially recommended for infants and invalids.

Guaranteed milk is next on the scale and is produced under guarantee with the County Health Department. The bacterial count in this milk must not exceed 15,000 per cc. This milk is of higher quality than Grade A raw milk, which is the natural raw milk with a bacterial count of less than 100,000 per cc. All of the raw milk sold in California is from health tested cows. Many persons prefer the taste of raw milk or are better able to digest it. Also, it has high vitamin content.

Pasteurized milk however has the largest sale. Requirements for production are not so high, (less than 200,000 bacterial count before pasteurization, not more than 15,000 after,) so it is cheaper. Pasteurized milk is not sterile

Pennsylvanians to Picnic June 11th

All who lived in the Keystone State are invited to a great picnic day Saturday June 11th, in Yosemite Grove Park, Los Angeles. Go early and spend the day with friends. There will be county registers and headquarters so all can find the old neighbors even thousands present. There will be a brief program, but the main purpose will be to have a good time and to meet friends from all over Southern California.

milk, such is not found on the market. Good milk properly pasteurized is a safe milk. When solely for infants, however, orange juice or tomato juice should be given to supply vitamin C which is less in milk after heating.

Milk safety depends upon everyone who handles it. The consumer's responsibilities will be given in the next article.

Flood Relief Sanitation Important

Nearly 200 sanitary engineers, doctors and nurses are at work in the Mississippi Valley flood area under the Red Cross banner, vaccinating and inoculating refugees with anti-typhoid serum and safeguarding their health by protecting their drinking water supply and enforcing sanitary measures.

This form of protective work is wholly a modern phrase of disaster relief. In the days when medical science was less developed, doctors and nurses were used to care for the sick rather than to prevent these unfortunate, hurriedly thrown into improvised camps from being stricken with communicable diseases. Had it not been for the discovery of preventative treatment by vaccines and serums, the camps along the Mississippi at this unhealthy season would have been swept by fevers and other contagions. As the mosquito control is impossible, and the malaria-bearing anopheles breeds in stagnant waters, all refugees receive their daily doses of quinine.

Follow-up work in sanitation and disease prevention will be necessary when the people return to their water-soaked lands to plant their summer crops.

Many FEATURES AT CATA * * * Anticipating an attendance of between six and seven hundred Scouts at Cherry Valley Harbor, Catalina Island, this summer, the camp committee are planning many new features. Very soon a big barge will leave Wilmington for Cherry Valley Harbor loaded with twenty-five to thirty tons of food and camp equipment.

This year one of the features will be three mess lines with facilities for feeding the one hundred and twenty Scouts in each camp, in not to exceed ten minutes.

An advance class in Seamanship will be of special interest to Scouts who have taken the regular course. The evening game period will include: volleyball, indoor baseball, boating and organized games. Several new camp fire program features are being planned which will be new to all who attend camp.

The usual "Life Problem Class" will be divided this year. There will be one for Scouts under fifteen years of age and one for Scouts fifteen and over.

A new type of color ceremony will be used which is quite novel in its character.

This is the Ninth Annual Camp of the Pasadena - San Gabriel Valley Council and they have grown from one camp in 1919 with ninety Scouts to six camps with over six hundred Scouts for this summer.

As usual these camps will be for registered Scouts and Leaders only and will be operated at cost.

problems and the unavoidable clerical expenses. For every cent we disburse in preliminary expenses we will get an immediate enormous return. We have already had 250 inches of publicity, mainly in Pasadena and Los Angeles papers, which is equal to twelve columns or two solid pages of newspaper matter. And each day we get more.

"Every penny we spend brings back many times its value to the community now. In addition to the attraction value of the undertaking there is the inspiration it is to the morale of the community."

"We need the help of every resident or property owner in Sierra Madre and we will welcome the subscriptions now. Send them to Mr. Humphries, at 24 West Central Avenue."

Last Sunday the executive committee visited "Oakhurst," the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Oakley near Brentwood Park. The Oakley place will form the nucleus of the great Mandeville Canyon Arboretum. It is located on the ridge above Mandeville Canyon. Eleven years ago it was a series of barren knolls. Today it is heavily covered with the most diverse verdure to be found in California. It has a great banana grove, many plants and trees from the South Seas, beautiful flowers and shrubs and a large quantity of temperate zone growths. There are twenty-four acres which are carefully tended by two men with a maximum water charge of $3 per acre per month at Los Angeles meter rates. Mr. Oakley said that his water expense with lavish use never ran over $700 per year.

The importance of this message to Sierra Madre lies in the fact that the first unit of the Arboretum to be developed will not exceed five acres.

Mr. Oakley offered to come to Sierra Madre any time he is wanted. He offered to cooperate in every way.

The executive committee had its 14th meeting last Friday night at the home of Dr. Krebs with 17 members present except one who was out of town. The committee determined to hold a formal celebration for the Arboretum on Sunday, July 10. W. R. Humphries was appointed a chairman of the day. He will appoint the personnel of his committee later. The celebration may be held at Bailey Canyon and will be somewhat in the nature of an old-timers' day. Distinguished visitors from many Southern California towns will be present.

The executive committee likewise confirmed the appointment of the following committees:

Arboretum Committee: Hon. Frank D. Shearer, superintendent of Parks, Los Angeles; Dr. Wm. Tyler Miller, one of the greatest botanists of America; Hon. Geo. C. Robertson, superintendent of Exposition Park; Hon. Fred Olmstead, landscape architect of Central Park in New York City; Hon. Charles G. Adams, president Los Angeles Planning Commission; Dr. George P. Clements, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; Aurele Vermeulen, creator of Bel-Air; William Hertrich, creator of Huntington Arboretum; O. W. Howard.

Engineering Committee: Hon. William Mulholland, Hon. J. B. Lippincott, city engineer; Hon. O. A. Gerlich, city engineer; Hon. J. A. Bell of San Gabriel; E. R. Bowen, Hon. A. L. Sonderegger.

Messrs. Henry W. O'Melveny and W. B. Matthews were added to the legal committee.

Other committees to be appointed include a historical committee, library committee, public relations committee, publication committee, finance committee, program committee, educational committee.

The executive committee will welcome suggestions for personnel of these committees as well as for any other feature of its work. The headquarters at 24 West Central Avenue are always open and are always busy.

Another meeting of the executive committee will be held to-night at Dr. Krebs' home.

This is one of the most encouraging letters received by Mr. Humphries:

"San Francisco, Cal., June 6, '27.

"Dear Mr. Humphries:

"Nothing has happened that gives me a bigger kick than your Arboretum movement. No one can deny Sierra Madre is the place of all places where it should be established. But I did not think you could do it. All power in the world to you. Here is my pledge $75.00, but don't print my name, with all wishes for success."

Interesting Program At Club House

Mrs. E. E. Bacon, first vice-president and program chairman, very graciously presided at the luncheon of the club on Wednesday. The speaker was Mrs. Isabel Henderson of Torrance, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Torrance, who is a charter member of the Sierra Madre Club. Mrs. Henderson gave a very comprehensive, entertaining and enlightening talk on China. She pointed out the many inconsistencies in the attitude of the Caucasian people toward the Chinese and made her hearers realize something of the size of the Chinese empire, its potential power and its 400,000,000 population. She made her hearers realize something of their patience, honesty and peace-loving qualities. She said that old China is passing and that a new and enlightened China is fighting, not for race superiority, but for race equality.

Mrs. Henderson recommended that those who are interested in China and its present situation read the last number of Current History, which has a very interesting and accurate account.

Miss Pfahler, teacher of music in the Sierra Madre school, who is a very talented and clever artist, favored the club with two beautiful piano numbers on the afternoon program.

Miss Virginia Jackman, vocal soloist, and Mrs. Gascon, her accompanist, both from Hollywood, gave several numbers. Miss Jackman's voice is quite unusual, she being able to change from baritone to mezzo soprano with ease and smoothness.

Miss Jackman also gave three selections on a saw, the latter proving a musical instrument of surprising quality and sweetness.

The next meeting of the club, June 22nd, will be the last meeting of the season. The president wishes to remind all committee chairmen and officers that annual reports must be ready to be given in on that day.

The afternoon entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Cecily Allen. Miss Helen Brooks, an accomplished and very popular dramatic reader, will read a play.

A bridge tea will be given on Wednesday, June 15th. Mrs. Chas. Collins will be in charge. As this is to be the last card party of the year and the club treasury is still very low, it is to be hoped that the attendance will be as large as possible.

Corner Lot Is Sold To a Local Buyer

Sale of the lot at the southwest corner of Baldwin and Central Avenues, approximately 100x150 feet was consummated by a deal which came out of escrow this week. The purchaser is Mrs. R. S. Corlett of Sierra Madre, who bought it through the agency of Mrs. N. M. Mesecar from the Southern California Development Corporation of Pasadena.

Definite announcement of the parties to the deal will probably set at rest various rumors that have been afloat. It has been reported that the corner was purchased for a new bank to become part of one of a big chain of banks, for a super-service station and for a big public market, all of which were founded on pure imagination.

All who lived in the Keystone state are invited to a great picnic all day Saturday June 11th, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. Go early and spend the day with friends. There will be county registers and headquarters so all can find the old neighbors even with thousands present. There will be a brief program, but the main purpose will be to have a good time and to meet friends from all over Southern California.

What's Doing At Theatres In Pasadena

Colorado

Marion Davies appears at the Colorado Theatre beginning today in a big new feature, the screen version of the famous comic strip, "Tillie the Toiler." Russ Westover's well known characters will be shown in all their familiar peculiarities. On the stage the Fanchon and Marco Idea will be "Hello Lindbergh," featuring Joe Neimeyer, the Tommy Atkins Sextette, DeLara and Melford and the trained dog, Hector.

Florence

Raymond Griffith, the comedian who made the silk hat famous, again is exhibiting his hilarious wares at the Florence Theatre, where his latest Paramount comedy "Wedding Bells" is now playing to crowded houses.

The comic side of the world war as it appears in many recent war niftypieces, reaches its hilarious climax in "Lost at the Front" which co-stars Charlie Murray and George Sidney, which will be the attraction at the Florence Theatre for four days starting Sunday.

Strand

While Warner Brothers' production of "The Better 'Ole" starring Syd Chaplin and directed by Chas. Reisner, has been hailed as one of the greatest comedies ever filmed, it is also one of the big pictures of the World War. Unlike most war pictures, every bit of "The Better 'Ole" which is the picturization of Bruce Bairnfather's world famous character, Bill Busby, the British Tommy, is staged in the war zone in the front line trenches or in the French village or country-side just behind them.

Shower for June Bride—

Miss Hortense Peterson of San Bernardino was the honor guest at a bridal shower given on Saturday by her cousin, Mrs. George B. Morgridge. Miss Peterson, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Peterson, will be married this month to Mr. Harry Pommer of San Bernardino. The guests arrived in time for luncheon, which was served at a charmingly decorated table with a "kewpie" bridal party marching down the center. After luncheon the guest of honor was the recipient of a large number of beautiful gifts for her new home. Three generations of relatives were represented among the guests, who included Mrs. O. A. Peterson, Mrs. George H. Seager, Jane Harriet and Donald Seager of San Bernardino; Mrs. Ella Fowble, Mrs. C. E. Riley and Richard Riley of South Pasadena; Mrs. Dwight Fowble and Donald Fowble of San Gabriel; Mrs. Virgil McCombs of Los Angeles; Mrs. Ella Lloyd and Miss Francis Lloyd of South Pasadena; Mrs. Hortense Hill, Mrs. Victor Hill and Mrs. Donald C. Ashmore.

Card Party at the Woman's Club—

The Woman's Club House will be the scene of a very lovely card party next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This is to be the last event of its kind this season and Mrs. Charles Collins, hostess, is devoting a great deal of time arranging for it. Unusually nice prizes have been selected for high score, and home-made cake and tea will be served. A cordial invitation is being extended by Mrs. Collins to everyone interested in bridge and 500 to attend and help make this event successful.

Entertained Teachers of City Schools—

Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, principal of the grammar school, entertained the teachers Monday night at a picnic supper at her home, 529 Mariposa Avenue. Her guests were Meses. Lila B. Kendall, Louise Stanley, Eva D. Moore, Mary Wheeler, May Wood, Zayda Leonard, Huldah Runkle, Mignonette Gruit, Eleanor Patterson, Misses Grace Wheeler, Ida Mundorff, Ruth Taylor, Helen Wones, Ruth Anderson, Evelyn Miller, Claire Newman, Mary Kegley, Constance Thorpe, Florence Lusted and Mary Pfahler, and Mr. Edward Anderson.

California Orange Crop Estimated at 28,500,000 Boxes

The California orange crop is estimated at 28,500,000 boxes by the United States crop reporting board. This estimate has been increased from an estimate of 24,000,000 boxes in December, as a result of unusually favorable growing conditions and the absence of injury from freezing.

The crop board's estimate includes all oranges picked during the current crop year, beginning the first of last November and extending until the last of next October. The California orange crop totaled 24,000,000 boxes last year and 18,000,000 boxes two years ago.

COMMUNITY THEATRE TRIES OUT NEW PLAN

The idea of the repertory theater which was so successfully revived in New York last season by Eva LaGalliene, is to have its first Southern California trial at the hands of the Pasadena Community Players, beginning next week. Under this plan director Gilmore Brown believes it will be more possible to continue popular plays long enough that all who desire may witness them, and at the same time slip in plays of more limited appeal but undoubted merit.

The plan as followed at Pasadena will be to give performances every night of the week except Sundays and Mondays, continuing the Saturday matinees. Two or three plays will be offered each week, of wide variety but all of real distinction in their respective field.

"Misalliance" by George Bernard Shaw, May 31, June 1 and 4, (matinee and night) and 10; "Two Gentlemen of Verona" by Shakespeare, June 2, 3 and 11 (matinee and night); "Justice" by John Galsworthy, June 7, 8 and 9; "They Called Him Babbitt" by Irving Brant, June 14. The latter play is an original one which took first prize in the annual contest of the Pasadena Drama League.

Stars Make Appearance In This City

What records are to a phonograph "Cinegraphs" promise to be to home motion picture projectors. They are four-minute feature pictures on amateur standard safety film which the Eastman Kodak company will issue beginning June 1. As in the production of phonograph records, new Cinegraph releases will be offered each month.

Cinegraphs have been produced to add to the home entertainment of the 50,000 amateurs who are already making their own movies. Reproductions of complete photographs on the amateur projector size of film are already being rented out by libraries in many cities. But the Cinegraphs will permit individuals systematically to start their own libraries of short pictures, much as phonograph owners collect records.

Felix the Cat, Bobby Jones, John Barrymore are the principal stars of the first month's releases of Cinegraphs. John Barrymore sees Beau Bummel thru a dramatic episode with his intimate, the Prince of Wales.

Woodson F. Jones has the franchise for distribution of Cinegraphs in Sierra Madre.

Seeing Only the Obvious

I SUPPOSE one of the main objects the person who invented the weather had in mind was to furnish an easy topic of conversation, and in this he has been eminently successful. In conversation, however, the most interesting things are those least expected, most original, and least obvious. Nothing pulls upon one more than to be told something he already knows, or to have his attention called to something upon which he has already remarked.

I met Sweeney as I was going to the office on a bright sunshiny morning, and he remarked, "It's a fine day." Of course it is, and it would be only an imbecile who would not recognize the fact.

During all the years I was acquainted with Mrs. Parrish I do not now recall that in our conversations, and she has the habit of fluent speech, she ever gave vocal expression to anything not perfectly obvious. If we were riding along a public road in the spring, she would call attention to the fact that a rabbit was running across the road, that the grass was turning green, that a farmer was plowing in the field, or announce to me how fast I was driving, though the speedometer was nearer to me than to her. Everything she spoke about was quite obvious.

I recall once letting her read a letter which had come to me from a common friend who was spending the winter in South America. "Did you know that Jane had been very sick in Buenos Aires?" she asked me a few days later. "And they are thinking of coming home in April."

Naturally I was aware of these facts, for they were gone into in some detail in the letter which I had the day before given her to read.

The alert mind in conversation picks out the curious, the interesting, or the previously unknown and springs it on one first. The greatest pleasure in conversation is not the obvious, but the unexpected, and we too often choose the thing that is patently before us, and so we are stupid and dull.

Nancy finds no delight in the obvious. I came home the other day to find her on her knees dusting the books.

"Are you cleaning house?" I inquired.

"No," she replied, "not at all; I'm climbing the Matterhorn."
